ORAL ORDER
(Passed on 21st June, 2007)

The following oral order of the Court was passed by Dilip Raosaheb Deshmukh, J.

The only point urged by learned counsel for the appellant in this appeal for enhancement of compensation in an injury case is that the learned Tribunal has not properly awarded compensation for the injuries suffered by the claimants. However, upon perusal of the impugned award, it is apparent that the claimant had not suffered any permanent disability. No medical evidence was adduced and the claimant had claimed only Rs.23,000/- towards pain and suffering which amount was already awarded by the learned Tribunal along with other amounts under the conventional heads. Thus, we find that learned Tribunal has awarded just and reasonable compensation to the claimant. No interference is called for with the impugned award.

Accordingly, the appeal being devoid of merit it is dismissed at the stage of admission itself.
